

Three Poems

“Bubbles” is written by a group of children, “Ninjas” by a second grader, and “Daughter-Mother-Daughter” by the lesson author, Julie Wollman-Bonilla

Bubbles

Floating holes
Reflecting spheres
Little rainbow heads
Glued together like magnets
Liquid crystal balls
Silent popcorn
Bubbles

Ninjas

Swords clashing
Through the air
Swinging lights
Moving darkness
Invisible men
Moving eyes
Fancy tricks
Ninjas

Daughter-Mother-Daughter

Why can't I?
She pleaded

It's not safe

It's not fair!
She cried

I know

You don't understand!
She insisted

I do

You see,
I was once
the daughter, too.
